1. Welcome to Seymour Johnson Air Force Base, North Carolina, home of the 4th Fighter Wing and the 916th Refueling Wing. We are pleased you are joining our team! You are our most important resource. With that in mind, we place strong emphasis on programs to help you transition to your new duties at the unit and your new life within our local community.

Meanwhile, to get started, go to the base website www.seymourjohnson.af.mil and click the "welcome" button on the top left corner. Most of the information you need, including your sponsor packet, is available there at any time.
3. Get connected! I encourage you to check out the new SJAFB APP. It has everything Seymour Johnson has to offer right at your fingertips. Available on Apple and Android markets, just search for "SJAFB". Additionally, Team Seymour has numerous active clubs led by airmen like you--I guarantee you will find something fun to get involved with! For more information, visit www.facebook.com/4fwcc.
4. Tracing its roots back to the Royal Air Force Eagle Squadrons in World War II, the 4th Fighter Wing became a record setter throughout the air war over Europe, justly earning the motto "Fourth but First." Today, the 4th Fighter Wing remains a leader in our nation's Air Expeditionary Force. Every member plays a vital role as we deploy our combat capabilities worldwide. You are one part of this legacy...and the fresh perspective you bring to the fight will make a significant impact on our mission accomplishment!
5. Remember, every member of the 4th Fighter Wing contributes to our mission to "Train, Produce, and Project Airpower for America," and supports our priorities of People, Mission and Community. Once again, welcome to Team Seymour. Go Fourth!
