Making the Switch

- All of your retail pharmacy prescriptions will show up in your medication profile
- Look for the “easy button”

A screenshot of a patient's medication profile. The profile is for Vanessa (07/28/1969). It shows a prescription for Nasonex 100MCG from a Retail Pharmacy. The medication has 20 days left. The profile includes a list of refills remaining (4), days supply (90), quantity (90), doctor (Edward Rossi), next refill date (Jun 20, 2013), expiration date (Apr 17, 2014), and last ordered date (Apr 22, 2013). A button labeled "Transfer to Home Delivery" is circled in red. The "Actions available" section includes "Worry-free Fills" with a link to "visit the Worry-free Fills center now".

Frequently Asked Questions

- Can refrigerated drugs be sent?
 - Yes!
- Will the drugs be ok outside in hot/cold temperatures?
 - Express Scripts uses a very complex algorithm that includes local weather patterns to ensure drugs remain at a safe temperature for a few days once delivered
- What if someone has more than one home (e.g: snowbirds)?
 - Can manage addresses online or over the phone
